IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between Daniel G. Bogden, United States Attorney, Robert Knief, Assistant United States Attorney, counsel for the United States of America, and Daniel J. Albregts, Esq., counsel for defendant ABDIEL ARMENTA VEGA, that the conditions of Defendant Vega's release be modified to remove the house arrest requirement and place the Defendant on a curfew as directed by his supervising pretrial services officer.

This stipulation is entered into for the following reasons:

1. The defendant is currently in compliance with all of the conditions of his pretrial release, including complying with the provision of house arrest.

2. Defense counsel has spoken with the defendant's supervising officer who indicates that he believes the defendant can be satisfactorily supervised with a curfew rather than with house arrest. However, their office will not change this condition absent a court order.

3. A curfew will allow the supervising officer more flexibility to grant the defendant permission to conduct other business, including assisting his family and handling other personal

1 affairs. The curfew will be a restrictive enough condition to address any flight and/or danger
2 concerns.
